

Kayla Hanson | Communications & Marketing Manager

Kayla Hanson joined CHAD in October of 2015. Kayla's role at CHAD is managing the communication, marketing, and graphic design activities for CHAD and will serve as a source to provide training and technical assistance for all health center's on communication and marketing matters.

She also provides administrative support to the Bismarck Office and the organization as needed.

Kayla graduated from Bismarck State College with an Associate's degree in Graphic Design & Communications.

She resides in Mandan, ND with her husband.