

Jill Kesler | Senior Program Manager

Jill Kesler joined CHAD in August 2013 to coordinate efforts with community, state and federal partners regarding access to health coverage options in the Dakotas through the Health Insurance Marketplace.

Jill's current role at CHAD is to manage the subcontract with the University of Washington to serve the mission of Mountain West AIDS Education and Training Center (MWAETC); which is to deliver innovative education and training to improve access to care and quality of life for people with or at increased risk for acquiring HIV.

She is an experienced business professional, having served as an international recruiter, manager, and small business owner in various industries. In addition, Jill has volunteered as a court-appointed special advocate (CASA) for abused and neglected children and at HorsePower, providing equine therapy to individuals with physical, emotional, and/or cognitive challenges. She also sat on the board of directors for Ten Thousand Villages. Jill graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Southwest Minnesota State University and lives with her husband in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.
