

Darci Bultje | Engagement Specialist

Darci Bultje joined CHAD in March 2022. She serves as the engagement specialist at CHAD. Darci organizes logistics and event details for engaging and educational virtual and in-person events, meetings, and conferences in this role. Darci brings over 19 years of experience to CHAD as the community services director at a South Dakota community action agency. She is a nationally certified results-oriented management and accountability trainer and a poverty simulation facilitator. Darci has experience in meeting facilitation, strategic planning, and event planning.

Darci graduated from South Dakota State University with a degree in ag journalism. She lives on a farm near Lake Andes with her husband, Brice, and three daughters. They raise Angus cattle and Rambouillet sheep, as well as chickens, horses, and pet goats. Darci is active in 4-H, serving as a leader and volunteer. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, hot days on the Missouri River, and binge-watching Netflix.
